A CORDIAL INVITATION TO VISIT US
AT TULIP-TIME

ANNOUNCEMENT OF DATE IN DAILY PAPERS

THE TULIP SHOW AT GARDENVILLE

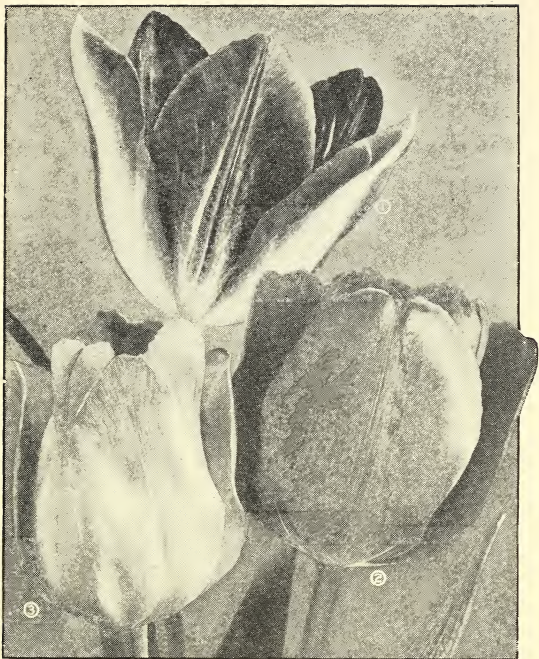

FOR hundreds of years people have been making an annual pilgrimage to the quaint old Dutch town of Haarlem in tulip-time. But Haarlem is 6,000 miles away and we, too, have a tulip-time in Washington.

No catalogue description or printed picture can possibly tell of the delicate tints or of the magnificent splashes of color of a tulip garden in bloom. You can make a happier choice of the tulips you may want for yourself next season, by seeing them blooming in our garden, 18,000 of them, in glorious array. The varieties are those that have been found best for growing here. Each bed will bear a number, so that by reference to the corresponding number in this little list you can learn to know each kind by name as you stroll down our pleasant paths, in these very best days of spring.

Perhaps it is because we are pioneers in the growing of Dutch bulbs in America, perhaps it is because the spirit of those worthy Haarlem burghers passes on with the little brown lumps they have been cultivating for so many centuries, but we, too, are proud of our tulip fields, and we open-heartedly invite you to visit us at tulip-time, and to enjoy with us the crowning glory of the coming spring.

My home and tulip garden can be reached from Tacoma and Seattle by the Pacific Highway, one mile north of Gardenville Fountain. Announcement of dates will appear in the daily papers.
